

Easter Sunday at The Gardens

Just for Lynn Petry

Easter Brunch at Orchard Hill, 11:30 am

For a unique experience, and wonderful change of pace from those same tired, over-crowded restaurants, bring your Easter bonnet and a big appetite to the beautiful and bucolic setting of Orchard Hill, the longtime home of Old Westbury Gardens' founder, Peggie Phipps Boegner. Enjoy a festive meal, expertly prepared by Manhattan Chef/Caterer/Cooking Teacher Claude Cassagnol, in this charming, 1859 Quaker farmhouse. $35. Reservations required.

Early Spring Stroll, 2 pm

Old Westbury Gardens staff and volunteers will guide you on a hour tour of the grounds, highlighting daffodils, chionodoxa, and other wildflowers, tulips and other early spring flowers in our Walled Gardens, and unique angles and views through the branches of deciduous trees still absent their leaves, providing vistas of Westbury House, the Thatched Cottage, and lakes and trails that are not visible at other times of the year.
